COURSE DESCRIPTION: This is a course in the history of English literary criticism and general literary theoretical principles from the classical period to the contemporary age.

Course Objectives: At the end of this course, students will be able to:

1. Understand the history of English literary criticism
2. Identify the critical principles/features or characteristics of various literary periods
3. Study critical writings of various literary critics across the periods

Required Textbooks/Journal:

Aristotle The Poetics

Plato's the Republic

Philip Sidney's An Apology for Poetry

Samuel Johnson- Preface to Shakespeare

William Words Worth's- Preface to the Lyrical Ballads

Percy B Shelly- A Defence of Poetry

S.T. Coleridge Biographia Literaria

T.S. Eliot's Traditional and the Individual Talent

Course Requirements:

Class Attendance: "Every student is required to attend classes regularly and punctually unless ill or prevented by some recognized emergency. Students who absent themselves from class more than three weeks during the semester shall merit F grade. Authorized leave of absence from campus does not excuse the student from classes, or relieve the student of the required course work' (BU academic Bulletin 2012-2015 p. 13).

Participation: Students are to actively engage in topic discussion and sharing of idea in class.

Tardiness/Conduct of Students in Class: lateness to class is unacceptable; students are not allowed to operate their cell phones, IPod and other electronic mobile gargets during classes, except with the permission of the teacher. Eating and chewing of bubble gums and drinking (water exempted) is also not allowed except with the permission of the teacher. Very importantly, students are required to dress in compliance with the university dress code and wear their identity cards while in class.

Short Devotionals/Prayer: Spiritual nurture is a part of whole person development, and team spirit is our strength; thus, every student is required to participate in the devotional exercise and prayer in class.

Submission of Assignment: as the teacher wishes to receive the assignments with the regulation of the academic Bulletin

Late assignment: assignment could be turned in earlier, but not later than the deadline set by the teacher.

Guideline for written work: Assignments should be type written in Times New Roman 12 points, double line spacing

Academic Integrity/Honesty: “Babcock University has a zero tolerance for any form of academic dishonesty. Morality and spiritual, the institution is committed to scholastic integrity. Consequently, both students and staff are to maintain high, ethical Christian levels of honesty. Transparent honest behaviours is expected of every student in all spheres of life.

Academic dishonesty include such things as plagiarism, unauthorized use of notes or textbooks on quizzes and examinations, copying or spying the text or paper of another student (formal or take home), talking to another student during examination, academic matter would automatically result in a failing grade for the examination and suspense, or outright dismissal from the university. Academic dishonesty issues are referred to SPEAM (senate panel on examination and academic misconduct) who investigates and makes recommendations to senate. Penalties for examination and academic misconduct are spelt out in the student’s handbook and in other regulations as published from time to time” (BU academic Bulletin 2012-2015 p. 18).

Grievance Procedure

“Students who believe in their academic rights have been infringed upon or that they have been unjustly treated with respect to their academic program are entitle to a fair and impartial consideration of their cases. They should do the following to affect a solution:

1. Present their case to the teacher(s) concerned.
2. If necessary discuss the problem with the head of department
3. If agreement is not reached at this level, submit the matter to the school dean
4. Finally, ask for a review of the case by the Grievance Committee
5. A fee is charged for remarking of scripts. If a student’s grievance is upheld after an external examiner has remarked the script, the grade would be credited to the student. The lecturer will be given a letter of reprimand and will asked to refund the fees to the student. If the student’s grievance is not sustained, the student will be given a letter and original grade retained” (BU Academic Bulletin 2012-2015 p. 18)

Teaching/learning methodologies: teachers are to determine their strategies for teaching their students. However, interactive strategies are encouraged, and there should be integration of faith and BU core values in the learning process.

Course Assessment/Evaluation

Continuous Assessment:

Class Attendance:	5%
Quizzes & tests:	10%
Assignments:	10%
Mid-Semester Exam:	15%
Final Semester Exam:	60%

Grade scale

Currently, the point grading system adopted by the University Senate translates as follows:

Grades	Marks- Quality	Range Points	Definition
A	80-100	5.00	Superior
B	60-79	4.00	Above Average
C	50-59	3.00	Average
D	45-49	2.00	Below Average
E	40-44	1.00	Pass
F	0-39	0.00	Fail

Incomplete Grade: an incomplete grade may only be assigned to a student upon request, due to an emergency situation that occurred within that semester, which prevented completion of an/some assignments, quizzes or examination. Such students would complete a contract form, obtained from the registrar, after agreement with the teacher. The form must be signed by the teacher, the student, the HOD, the dean, the registrar and the senior Vice Chancellor (SVP) before contract begins. The original copy of the incomplete form will be sent to the registrar with copies to the teacher, the student, the HOD, the dean, and the SVP. An incomplete grade (I) reverts to the existing grade if contract is not completed by the end of the following semester. (Including summer semester, except for examinations) (BU Academic Bulletin 2012-2015 p. 20).
