OUR PHILOSOPHY

Babcock University's philosophy is anchored on the harmonious development of the intellectual, physical, social, and spiritual potential of our students, inspiring stable and notable character needed for effective leadership and service in the society.

CORPORATE IMAGE STATEMENT: A centre of excellence for character development and scholarship; a society responsive, responsible and accountable institution in matters of commitment and action.

1. BULLETIN DESCRIPTION OF COURSE: This course should focus on a higher level of the approaches treated under the course in literary theory and criticism in the M.A. programme. Advanced discussions on topics such as Structuralism, poetics, Semiology, Semiotics, Reader-response Theory, and Deconstruction etc. should be handled.

2. Further description of course by the teacher. This course will be very practical in the sense that it will emphasize application of theory to texts. Students will be expected to carry out textual analysis of various genres of writings using specific theories.

Course Content: The major concepts that will be discussed in this course includes: Surrealism, deconstruction, formalism, post modernism, reader-response, semiotics, psycho analysis.

Course Objectives: At the end of this course students will be able to:

- a. Understand various canonical and contemporary literary theories
- b. Apply theories to texts
- c. Undertake sustained textual analysis using various theories

Required Textbooks/Journal:

1. Dobie, Ann (2009) Theory into Practice. Boston: Wadsworth Cengage Learning.
2. Eagleton, Terry (1983). Literary Theory: An Introduction. Minneapolis: University of Minnesota Press
3. Sotunsa Mobolanle (ed) (2011) From Theory to Practice: Advanced Literary Text Analysis Lagos: Asaba Publications,
4. Akporobaro F B O et all (2010) Landmark and New Essays in Literary and Linguistic Theory and Criticisms, Lagos : Princeton Publishing

Course Requirements:

Class Attendance: “Every student is required to attend classes regularly and punctually unless ill or prevented by some recognized emergency. Students who absent themselves from class more than three weeks during the semester shall merit F grade. Authorized leave of absence from campus does not excuse the student from classes, or relieve the student of the required course work’ (BU academic Bulletin 2012-2015 p. 13).

Participation: Students are to actively engage in topic discussion and sharing of idea in class.

Tardiness/Conduct of Students in Class: lateness to class is unacceptable; students are not allowed to operate their cell phones, IPod and other electronic mobile gargets during classes, except with the permission of the teacher. Eating and chewing of bubble gums and drinking (water exempted) is also not allowed except with the permission of the teacher. Very importantly, students are required to dress in compliance with the university dress code and wear their identity cards while in class.

Short Devotionals/Prayer: Spiritual nurture is a part of whole person development, and team spirit is our strength; thus, every student is required to participate in the devotional exercise and prayer in class.

Submission of Assignment: All assignments must be submitted on or before the time line given in class. No late submissions will be entertained.

Late assignment: assignment could be turned in earlier, but not later than the deadline set by the teacher.

Guideline for written work: All assignments should be typed written in New Roman font, 12 points and double spaced except for indented quotations. In-text references must be made and all references also reflected at the Works Cited portion at the end of the assignment. Plagiarism and mere copying from internet is not encouraged. It will attract penalties.

Academic Integrity/Honesty: “Babcock University has a zero tolerance for any form of academic dishonesty. Morality and spiritual, the institution is committed to scholastic integrity. Consequently, both students and staff are to maintain high, ethical Christian levels of honesty. Transparent honest behaviours is expected of every student in all spheres of life.

Academic dishonesty include such things as plagiarism, unauthorized use of notes or textbooks on quizzes and examinations, copying or spying the text or paper of another student (formal or take home), talking to another student during examination, academic matter would automatically result in a failing grade for the examination and suspense, or outright dismissal from the university. Academic dishonesty issues are referred to SPEAM (senate panel on examination and academic misconduct) who investigates and makes recommendations to senate. Penalties for examination and academic misconduct are spelt out in the student’s handbook and in other regulations as published from time to time” (BU academic Bulletin 2012-2015 p. 18).

Grievance Procedure

“Students who believe in their academic rights have been infringed upon or that they have been unjustly treated with respect to their academic program are entitled to a fair and impartial consideration of their cases. They should do the following to affect a solution:

1. Present their case to the teacher(s) concerned.
2. If necessary discuss the problem with the head of department
3. If agreement is not reached at this level, submit the matter to the school dean
4. Finally, ask for a review of the case by the Grievance Committee
5. A fee is charged for remarking of scripts. If a student’s grievance is upheld after an external examiner has remarked the script, the grade would be credited to the student. The lecturer will be given a letter of reprimand and will asked to refund the fees to the student. If the student’s grievance is not sustained, the student will be given a letter and original grade retained” (BU Academic Bulletin 2012-2015 p. 18)

Teaching/learning methodologies: This course will adapt the following methodologies

- A. Teaching- Please note that students are encouraged to form notes. Come to the class with both your notes and jotters.
- B. Class group presentations- You will be divided into groups to make presentations on pre assigned topics/texts

Course assessment/evaluation

Continuous Assessment:

Attendance/Participation: 5%

Quizzes: 5%

Paper Presentations: 50%

Mid Semester: 10%

Final Semester Exam: 30%

Grade scale

Currently, the point grading system adopted by the University Senate translates as follows:

Grades	Marks- Quality	Range Points	Definition
A	80-100	5.00	Superior
B	60-79	4.00	Above Average
C	50-59	3.00	Average
D	45-49	2.00	Below Average
E	40-44	1.00	Pass
F	0-39	0.00	Fail

Incomplete Grade: an incomplete grade may only be assigned to a student upon request, due to an emergency situation that occurred within that semester, which prevented completion of an/some assignments, quizzes or examination. Such students would complete a contract form, obtained from the registrar, after agreement with the teacher. The form must be signed by the teacher, the student, the HOD, the dean, the registrar and the senior Vice Chancellor (SVP) before contract begins. The original copy of the incomplete form will be sent to the registrar with copies to the teacher, the student, the HOD, the dean, and the SVP. An incomplete grade (I) reverts to the existing grade if contract is not completed by the end of the following semester. (Including summer semester, except for examinations) (BU Academic Bulletin 2012-2015 p. 20).

sFurther readings:

Students with disability
